

①

.....Incien.....DEPAR
.....Political A.....BRANCH
.....Controllin

CONSULTATION.....January 1867.....
No...119/23 (1 photo with notes).....

Subject.....
.....
.....
.....

Previous reference

Later

(2)

Bombay, No. 305, dated 26th December 1866.

The Bombay Govt
inquires what measures Col. Pelly will be at liberty to adopt, in case Syud Toorkee disregards the injunctions of the British government as to desisting from further attempts on Muscat.

It seems to me quite impossible for the Government of India to lay down instructions beforehand when every thing must depend upon the particular complexion of the contingency against which such instructions are to provide. For instance Syud Toorkee might succeed in his attempt in in which case the ~~the~~ course to be adopted, whatever it might be,

would necessarily be very different from the course advisable if events went against him. And in the latter case such considerations as whether or not he had been captured, whether he had fled ~~yes~~, would have to be looked to, before any definite action could be taken.

Moreover Col.
Pelly, at the present moment, has no means of coercion at his disposal, - and even his power of locomotion must be hampered probably

(4) probably by the burning of his Steam Yacht, the "Berenice".

All this must be known to the Bombay Government, and the present request looks almost like a fresh protest against Col.
Pelly's being subjected to the control of the Government of India.

Perhaps the Govt of Bombay might be told that if Syed Sookree does disregard the British Government's mandate, it will be Col. Pelly's duty immediately to report
all the circumstances and at the same time to submit for the Orders of the Government any any suggestions which his local experience may enable him to offer for the effectual coercion of the offender. (5)

It might be added that there seems no reason to anticipate any such grave & emergency arising as would justify Col. Pelly in taking immediate action in anticipation of the orders of Govt., although by the expression of such an opinion the G. G. inf.
does not by any means intend to withdraw from Col.
Pelly that discretionary

(6)

timary power of promptly meeting an extraordinary crisis upon his own responsibility, which an officer in his position should hold.

Synd Sourkee is at present staying with the Chief of Debye on the Pirate Coast. This Chief is one of the many Arab Chiefs who are bound by Treaty to refrain from any warlike operations by sea, and to punish any of their subjects or dependents who may break the maritime peace. Perhaps it may be advisable to

to call the attention of this and all the other Chiefs of the Coast, who are bound by similar engagements, to their obligations towards the British Government in this respect, and specially to warn them against affording Synd Toorkee any assistance direct or indirect in his attempt on Muscat.

Perhaps by this means Synd Toorkee, if he still adhered to his revolutionary projects, might be driven to trying them by land - a course which will be of much less

(8)

left consequence to the British Government.

/s/ J. W. S. W.
3/1/67.

I agree to this - Circulate in Calcutta

/s/ J. L.
7/1/67.

/s/ W. G.
9/6/67.

/s/ H. S. M.
10/1/67.

9

1867.
Political.

Synd Sookkee and Muscat.

K.W.
Presd. Jan'y
No 119/21.

10

om Bombay Govt.,

No. 305, dated 26th Dec. 1866.

Syud Toorkee and Muscat.

THE Bombay Government enquires what measures Colonel Pelly will be at liberty to adopt in case Syud Toorkee disregards the injunctions of the British Government as to desisting from further attempts on Muscat.

It seems to me quite impossible for the Government of India to lay down instructions beforehand, when everything must depend upon the particular complexion of the contingency against which such instructions are to provide. For instance Syud Toorkee might succeed in his attempt, in which case the course to be adopted, whatever it might be, would necessarily be very different from the course advisable if events went against him. And in the latter case, such considerations as whether or not he had been captured, whether he had fled, &c., would have to be looked to before any definite action could be taken.

Moreover Colonel Pelly, at the present moment, has no means of coercion at his disposal, and even his powers of locomotion must be hampered probably by the burning of his steam-yacht, the Berenice.

All this must be known to the Bombay Government, and the present request looks almost like a fresh protest against Colonel Pelly's being subjected to the control of the Government of India.

Perhaps the Government of Bombay might be told that if Syud Toorkee does disregard the British Government's mandate, it will be Colonel Pelly's duty immediately to report all the circumstances, and at the same time to submit for the orders of the Government any suggestions which his local experience may enable him to offer for the effectual coercion of the offender. It might be added that there seems no reason to anticipate any such grave emergency arising as would justify Colonel Pelly in taking immediate action in anticipation of the orders of Exd.—J. D. G.

Government, although by the expression of such an opinion the Governor-General in Council does not by any means intend to withdraw from Colonel Pelly that discretionary power of promptly meeting an extraordinary crisis upon his own responsibility, which an officer in his position should hold.

Syud Toorkee is at present staying with the Chief of Debaye on the Pirate Coast. This Chief is one of the many Arab Chiefs who are bound by treaty to refrain from any warlike operations by sea, and to punish any of their subjects or dependents who may break the maritime peace. Perhaps it may be advisable to call the attention of this and all the other Chiefs of the Coast, who are bound by similar engagements, to their obligations towards the British Government in this respect, and specially to warn them against affording Syud Toorkee any assistance direct or indirect in his attempts on Muscat.

Perhaps by this means Syud Toorkee, if he still adhered to his revolutionary projects, might be driven to trying them by land—a course which will be of much less consequence to the British Government.

3-1-67. (Sd.) J. W. S. W.

I AGREE to this.

7-1-67. (Sd.) J. L.

Circulate in Calcutta.

10-1-67. (Sd.) H. S. M.

(12)

1867

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

POLITICAL—A

Syud Toorkee and Muscat.

SIMLA RECORDS.

K. W.

Proceedings, January,

Nos. 119-121.

3

*From Bombay Govt.,
No. 305, dated 26th Dec. 1866.*

Syud Toorkee and Muscat.

THE Bombay Government enquires what measures Colonel Pelly will be at liberty to adopt in case Syud Toorkee disregards the injunctions of the British Government as to desisting from further attempts on Muscat.

It seems to me quite impossible for the Government of India to lay down instructions beforehand, when everything must depend upon the particular complexion of the contingency against which such instructions are to provide. For instance Syud Toorkee might succeed in his attempt, in which case the course to be adopted, whatever it might be, would necessarily be very different from the course advisable if events went against him. And in the latter case, such considerations as whether or not he had been captured, whether he had fled, &c., would have to be looked to before any definite action could be taken.

Moreover Colonel Pelly, at the present moment, has no means of coercion at his disposal, and even his powers of locomotion must be hampered probably by the burning of his steam-yacht, the Berenice.

All this must be known to the Bombay Government, and the present request looks almost like a fresh protest against Colonel Pelly's being subjected to the control of the Government of India.

Perhaps the Government of Bombay might be told that if Syud Toorkee does disregard the British Government's mandate, it will be Colonel Pelly's duty immediately to report all the circumstances, and at the same time to submit for the orders of the Government any suggestions which his local experience may enable him to offer for the effectual coercion of the offender. It might be added that there seems no reason to anticipate any such grave emergency arising as would justify Colonel Pelly in taking immediate action in anticipation of the orders of Exd.—J. D. G.

(12)

[2]

Government, although by the expression of such an opinion the Governor-General in Council does not by any means intend to withdraw from Colonel Pelly that discretionary power of promptly meeting an extraordinary crisis upon his own responsibility, which an officer in his position should hold.

Syud Toorkee is at present staying with the Chief of Debaye on the Pirate Coast. This Chief is one of the many Arab Chiefs who are bound by treaty to refrain from any warlike operations by sea, and to punish any of their subjects or dependents who may break the maritime peace. Perhaps it may be advisable to call the attention of this and all the other Chiefs of the Coast, who are bound by similar engagements, to their obligations towards the British Government in this respect, and specially to warn them against affording Syud Toorkee any assistance direct or indirect in his attempts on Muscat.

Perhaps by this means Syud Toorkee, if he still adhered to his revolutionary projects, might be driven to trying them by land—a course which will be of much less consequence to the British Government.

3-1-67. (Sd.) J. W. S. W.

I AGREE to this.

7-1-67. (Sd.) J. L.

Circulate in Calcutta.

10-1-67. (Sd.) H. S. M.

(5)

1867

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

POLITICAL—A

Syud Toorkee and Muscat.

K. W.

Proceedings, January,

Nos. 119-121.

How Syud Toorkee should be dealt with.

No. 119. From C. GONNE, Esq., Secretary to Government, Bombay, to the Secretary to the Government of India, in the Foreign Department, Calcutta,—No. 305, dated the 26th December 1866.

I AM directed to forward, for submission to the Government of India, the enclosed copy of a letter from the Resident in the Persian Gulf, No. 117, dated the 1st instant, with translation of a letter from His Highness the Sultan of Muscat.

2. The recent orders of the Government of India as to warning Syud Toorkee that he will be treated as an enemy if he excites disturbance, contained in your telegram dated the 18th instant, have been communicated to Lieutenant-Colonel Pelly. But I am desired to state that the orders of His Excellency the Governor General in Council seem to be necessary as to the nature of the measures which Lieutenant-Colonel Pelly is to be at liberty to adopt towards Syud Toorkee if he disregards.

No. 120. From LIEUTENANT-COLONEL LEWIS PELLY, Her Britannic Majesty's Political Resident, Persian Gulf, to C. GONNE, Esq., Secretary to Government, Bombay,—No. 117, dated British Residency, Bushire, the 1st December 1866.

I BEG to enclose translate of a letter received from His Highness Sayed Saulem, Sultan of Muscat, expressing his satisfaction with the manner in which the Residency Moonshee conducted his duties during the period he was employed as Acting Native Agent at Muscat. Mahomed Bauker Khan has now assumed charge of his duties in conformity to the instructions of Government, and I request he may be gazetted as having done so from the 8th November 1866.

2. Government will observe that His Highness, in common with every other Chief in these regions, looks to the British Government for the peace at sea, and requests me, as arbitrator of the maritime truce, to punish Syud Toorkee for his recent infraction of the maritime truce, in attacking Muscat. I would respectfully request explicit instructions as to the reply I am to give to the Sultan concerning his request for punishment to Syud Toorkee.

3. On this subject I beg respectfully to draw the attention of Government to my letter, No. 43, Political Department, dated 23rd April 1866.

4. It is agreeable to me to add that the Agent at Muscat reports that "the town is now quiet and the merchants in perfect rest, especially the British subjects."

Translate of a letter from HIS HIGHNESS SAYED SAULEM, Sultan of Muscat, to LIEUTENANT-COLONEL LEWIS PELLY, Her Majesty's Political Resident in the Persian Gulf,—dated 12th Rajab 1283 (20th November 1866). Received 26th November 1866.

TOORKEE'S exit from my fort took place on my forgiving him when I had the ability and power to kill him.

His arrival here was by sea, notwithstanding all disturbances at sea are prevented by the Sirkar. It is incumbent on you to punish him for his past act.

How Syud Toorkee should be dealt with.

Some news has now been brought to my notice regarding Toorkee and those who have joined him,—riotous people like himself,—that they wish to come out to my country and destroy my territory and subjects. If this happen, there will, of course, be some disturbance at sea. It will also be necessary that I should make every preparation and take great care in the matter, and that I should defend the countries that might be attacked by Toorkee, and cause my ships-of-war to surround them with my troops to keep a look-out.

The facts of this case will be fully communicated to you verbally by Mirza Mahomed Hossain.

Mirza Mahomed Hossain during his stay here has not, in fact, been found doing anything against rules; but he has managed everything in a proper way and according to terms of Treaty.

1867-80/78
A 24/1/87 - 2107-11

F

8091 1905

305
2/1/87

8383

24-3-88

81

1867
FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

POLITICAL—A

No. 305

From
The Secy. to Govt., Bombay

Dated 26th December 1866.

Recd. 3rd January 1867.

3/1/87
11/4/1/87

SIMLA RECORDS

Proceedings, January,
Nos. 119, 120.

Bombay 8/5/87 No. 5

Ans. 15/1/87 No. 62

States that the recent orders of the Government of India as to warning Syud Toonkee that he will be treated as an enemy if he excites disturbance, have been communicated to Lieutenant-Colonel Pelly.

19

How Syud Toorkee should be dealt with.

No. 121. From J. W. S. WYLLIE, Esq., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Bombay,—
No. 62, dated Fort William, the 15th January 1867.

I HAVE laid before the Governor General in Council your letter, No. 305, dated 26th ultimo, and its enclosures, enquiring what measures Lieutenant-Colonel Pelly will be at liberty to adopt in case Syud Toorkee disregards the injunctions of the British Government and again violates the maritime peace by another attempt on Muscat.

2. His Excellency in Council desires me to reply, that if Syud Toorkee does disregard the mandate, it will be Colonel Pelly's duty immediately to report all the circumstances, and at the same time to submit, for the orders of the Government of Bombay, any suggestions which his local experience may enable him to offer for the effectual coercion of the offender.

3. There seems at present no likelihood of any such grave emergency arising as would justify Colonel Pelly in taking immediate action in anticipation of the orders of your Government. But by the expression of such an opinion the Governor General in Council does not intend to withdraw from Colonel Pelly that discretionary power of promptly meeting an extraordinary crisis upon his own responsibility which an Officer in his position should hold.

4. Colonel Pelly, writing on the 14th November, states that Syud Toorkee is at present staying with the Chief of Debaye on the Pirate Coast. The terms of the Treaty of 1853 binding the Chief of Debaye and several other Chiefs of the Arabian Coast to refrain from any warlike operations by sea, and to punish any of their subjects or dependents who may break the maritime peace, appear to apply only to the relations which the several parties to the engagement are intended to maintain towards each other. But with reference to Article 4 of the Treaty of 1820, by which these Chiefs are bound to "be at peace with the British Government," and with regard also to the recognized position which the British Government holds as arbiter of peace on the waters of the Persian Gulf, Colonel Pelly should take measures for giving the Chief of Debaye and the Sheiks of the coast generally to understand that the British Government has recognized Sayed Saulem as Sultan of Oman; that it has therefore viewed Syud Toorkee's attempt on Muscat, made in violation of the maritime peace, with marked displeasure; and that it expects every Chief to refrain from lending countenance or aid of any kind to Syud Toorkee in any future endeavor he may dare to make, especially by sea, towards capturing Muscat.

21

How Syud Toorkee should be dealt with.

No. 122. From W. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Bombay, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department,—No. 5, dated the 9th January 1867.

In continuation of the letter from this Government, No. 282, dated the 10th ultimo, I am directed to forward to you the accompanying copy of a letter and of its enclosures from the Political Resident in the Persian Gulf, No. 131, dated the 18th idem, and to state, for the information of the Government of India, that the proceedings of the Political Resident therein reported have been fully approved by this Government.

2. The recent instructions of the Government of India, communicated to this Government in your telegram and letter noted in the margin, will, I am to add, indicate to Lieutenant-Colonel Pelly the course to be adopted towards Syud Toorkee.

Telegram dated 18th Dec. 1866.
Letter, No. 1268, dated idem.

No. 123. From LIEUTENANT-COLONEL LEWIS PELLY, Her Britannic Majesty's Political Resident, Persian Gulf, to C. GOSSE, Esq., Secretary to Government, Bombay, in the Political Department,—No. 131, dated Bushire, the 18th Dec. 1866.

In continuation of previous correspondence I have the honor to submit translates of two letters received from Syud Toorkee evincing his determination to re-attack Muscat by land, and requesting aid in regard to his cash deposits. I have not again replied to Syud Toorkee, and have instructed our Agent at Muscat to decline receiving cash or goods on account of Syud Toorkee, and to afford him no countenance or assistance.

No. 106, Political Department, dated 29th October 1866.

No. 2093, Political Department, dated 16th October 1866, from Secretary to Government.

2. I have further informed Syud Toorkee's Agent at Bushire that my previous instruction regarding the allowance granted to Syud Toorkee by Government having ceased has been confirmed by Government.

File No. 132, of this day's date.

3. The Beni-yas Chiefs of Debaye and Aboothabee have addressed me requesting permission to aid Syud Toorkee by sea. In reply, I have reminded them that the maritime peace is confided to the English Government, and requested them to adhere to the terms of the maritime truce. It is possible that these Chiefs address me simply in view to eliciting a reply which they may place before Syud Toorkee as an excuse for not aiding him.

4. The Agent at Muscat reports that considerable alarm exists there among our subjects concerning Syud Toorkee's threatened movements, but that the Sultan seems confident in his own position. I have instructed the Agent not to interfere in any arrangements the Sultan may make for the defence of his territories, and I have further requested the Agent to remind British subjects at Muscat of the notification made to them a few months ago under the instructions of the Government of India "that there is some danger to them and to their Agents if they decide on returning to Muscat."

Eide Government of India's letter, No. 490, Foreign Department, dated Simla, 17th May 1866.

5. In my letter now noted I had the honor to solicit instructions as to the course I should pursue in respect to an attack by Syud Toorkee on Muscat; and pending instructions I beg respectfully to assure Government that I shall wholly refrain from interference.

No. 96, Political Department, dated 2nd October 1866.

How Syud Toorkee should be dealt with.

6. The Agent states that some British subjects are desirous of leaving Muscat, and some of placing their valuables in the Agency. I have instructed the Agent that any British subject can, of course, leave Muscat at his own pleasure, and that, if valuables be deposited in the Agency, the cases must be sealed, and all and every risk in regard thereto to remain with the depositors and their Agents.

Translation of a letter from SYUD TOORKEE, to the Resident in the Persian Gulf,—dated the 8th Rajab 1283 (16th November 1866).

I HAVE received your letter and understood its contents. The prohibition at sea is owing to my bad luck. But still I will not keep away from Saulem. I am determined to go by land, and will hope to God for aid and assistance. I only request that, if you can prevent the movements of those on the north-west coast who are inclined towards the Wahabees, you may be pleased to do so. Assistance from all quarters is given me in this matter.

Translation of a letter from SYUD TOORKEE, to the Resident in the Persian Gulf,—dated the 8th Rajab 1283 (16th November 1866).

I AM informed by people coming from Muscat that some money has arrived for me from Mahomed bin Saulem of Zanzibar on account of my dues, but without any requisition from me; and that this money has been, according to one statement, landed at the Consulate, and, according to another, sent by your Agent to Bushire; but I do not know whether it is a true or a false rumour. If it is true, it is well, as I am at present in great want of money.

Copy of a letter from the Resident in the Persian Gulf, to the Native Agent at Muscat,—dated the 10th December 1866.

I REQUEST you will be so good as to decline receiving any cash or goods on account of Syud Toorkee, and to afford him no aid or countenance.

Copy of a letter from the Resident in the Persian Gulf, to the Chief of Aboothabee,—dated the 3rd Shaban 1283 (11th December 1866).

I HAVE received your letter of 17th Jemadi-el-Akher.

You are aware that the maintenance of the peace at sea is confided to the English Government, and I must beg you to adhere to the terms of the maritime truce.

Copy of a letter from the Resident in the Persian Gulf, to the Chief of Debaye,—dated the 11th December 1866.

I HAVE received your letter of 22nd Jemadi-el-Akher.

You are aware that the maintenance of the peace at sea is confided, under agreement, to the English Government, and I must explicitly beg you to adhere to the terms of the maritime truce.

Translated extract of a letter from the British Agent at Muscat, to the Resident in the Persian Gulf,—dated the 7th December 1866.

FOR four days past the ryots have been much frightened because it is reported that Syud Toorkee is coming to Muscat with an armed force: his army is said to be very large. Four or five ryots came to me and asked me to allow them to place some of their valuables in the Consulate for safety. I said I would not consent to locked boxes being placed in my custody, but that, if they wished to bring their boxes to the Consulate, open them, count and take a list of the contents, I could take care of them; but up to the present no boxes have been brought. These people are very much frightened, because they say that, if Syud Toorkee will come some day or night with his army, the latter will loot the town. But the Sultan tells every one he has not heard that Syud Toorkee is coming. Three days ago some soldiers from the interior came to pay their respects to Sayed Saulem. On the 2nd December Sayed Saulem had some cannon sent up to the Jellalee Fort.

How Syud Toorkee should be dealt with.

Translation of a letter from the Acting Native Agent at Muscat, to the Resident in the Persian Gulf,—dated 24th Jemadi-el-Tany 1283.

I AM informed that the Beniyas and Benitemim tribes are all ready to afford assistance to Syud Toorkee. The Chief of Aboothabee had written to Sayed Saulem that if he would give Syud Toorkee the countries that were formerly under him and his usual allowance, it would be well, otherwise they were all allied to assist Syud Toorkee in gaining this object. On receiving this letter, Sayed Saulem called Raushed bin Oman and Syud Towaynee and Saeed, and consulted them on the matter. They decided in sending the Chief of Aboothabee some presents of shawls and horses. Sayed Saulem and the Chief of Aboothabee were on good terms before, but since the former refused to receive the mare sent him as present by the latter, the Chief of Aboothabee was offended.

Translation of a letter from the Acting Native Agent at Shargah, to the Resident in the Persian Gulf,—dated 6th Rajab 1283 (14th November 1866).

I HEAR that the Chiefs of Aboothabee and Debaye have written and sent messengers to their friends in Batinah, informing them of their intended movements with Syud Toorkee, and that they have received favorable replies. I do not know what tribes they are who have so replied, but I see that the Chiefs are writing to all the tribes in Batinah and elsewhere, and trying to form a combination.

MS. A. 8. 27. 66. No. 4246. 27/2/78

8071
1405

1867 FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

POLITICAL—A

From
The Secy. to Govt., Bombay

Dated 9th January 1867.

Recd. 16th January 1867.

5467
11/1/71

DIWLA RECORDS

Proceedings, January,
Nos. 122, 123.

States that the recent instructions of the Government of India, communicated to this Government in their telegram and letter, will indicate to the Political Resident, Persian Gulf, the course to be adopted towards Syud Toorkes.

720